

Ronald X. Stewart, President, United Nation Builders

Brother Minister A. Haqq Muhammad aka Ronald X Stewart was born in Harlem, New York. He is the third of eight children born to Abraham and Carrie Stewart. Bro. Haqq's parents Parents moved from Harlem to the Coney Island section of Brooklyn, N.Y. where he attended All the local public schools. In 1965, as a teen, he joined the Nation of Islam at Temple No.7 Under the teachings of the Honorable Elijah Muhammad., where he later became a minister both New York and New Jersey. As a youth Bro. Haqq became director of the Coney Island Youth Development Program and founder of Men United 4 Change, a youth Mentoring agency. Bro. Haqq holds a bachelor's degree in English and History from Brooklyn Collage. He's currently a member of Community Planning Board 13 and Coordinator of the Step Up Project, an anti-violence movement in his neighborhood. Also, he served 25 years as a A New York State Parole Officer. Bro. Haqq is a founding member and president of the United Nation Builders Inc. He's married to his childhood sweetheart, Sister Helen Alonzo-Stewart, And raised seven wonderful children, including grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Currently he resides in a home he owns with his family in the neighbor he grew up in Brooklyn NY.